proudly presents

UKRAINIAN DANCE WORKSHOP

For over 34 years, WORKSHOP has been the most popular summer Ukrainian dance program for teens and young adults in the country. The success of this program is a testament to the incomparable Roma Pryma Bohachevsky, Artistic Director from 1975 to her passing in 2004. Her passion for Ukrainian dance, and her dedication to preserving and perpetuating the art, are part of her legacy, and the foundation for what WORKSHOP is today. Her daughter, Ania Bohachevsky Lonkevych now serves as Director of the program.

WORKSHOP 2011 staff includes Orlando Pagan. He is known and admired not only for his exceptional dancing, but for his charismatic teaching and energy. WORKSHOP instructors strive to maintain the characteristic style of Pani Roma's work both in class and in choreography, while at the same time, bringing to WORKSHOP new concepts and skills to share and inspire. Guest Instructors Stefan Calka and Roman Lewkowicz will also be joining us at WORKSHOP.

At WORKSHOP, students are challenged for two intensive weeks of study. Daily classes in both character and ballet technique are followed by rigorous rehearsals where students learn sophisticated choreography and refine their performing skills. Pani Roma was truly a dance pioneer. In that spirit, WORKSHOP challenges instructor and students alike, to further not only the development of Ukrainian dance, but dance in all its forms, as a reflection of the rich Ukrainian cultural heritage. Over the years, WORKSHOP has impressed audiences with unique dances to Ukrainian music, or based on Ukrainian themes, in hip-hop, ballroom, modern, lyrical and jazz dance styles.

Soyuzivka is the proud home of the Roma Pryma Bohachevsky Ukrainian Dance Academy. Besides hosting our summer dance programs, Soyuzivka is also "The Summer Home of Syzokryli," the New York based ensemble founded in 1978 by Roma Pryma Bohachevsky. Workshop participants are given the opportunity to learn some of the exciting dances that are unique to the Ensembles repertoire.

Many Workshop participants apply for Senior, Junior and Counselor in Training (CIT) positions at our Dance Camps in July and August. Contact us for an application if you're interested in continuing your summer dance experience with us!
